My, how Kim's face has changed!

She insists she hasn't had work, but pictures don't lie

"I'm totally not against plastic surgery," says Kim, and only admits she has "tried Botox." However, cosmetic surgeon Dr. Semira Bayati notes that along with Botox in her forehead and some fillers to her nasolabial lines, she likely had a nose job. "She used to have an 'ethnic' Armenian nose and now her nose looks very chiseled," Dr. Bayati tells In Touch.
